Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence for Resource Management Washington, D.C. 20503  DCI/RM 81-1201 6 January 1981  MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Hand Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the Consideration of the HAC and SAC.  If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Magenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller  OCC: CIA Comptroller  OCC: CIA Comptroller	V + 33/2 *. 44 v !	5 1 F3 1
MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT:  FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Lawrence Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (c)  Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)	Approved For Release 2006/12/16 . CIA-RE	P89+00788R0001000	080011 140:100 Baylary
MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT:  FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Lawrence Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (c)  Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)			31-038
MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT:  FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Manna  1. We have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and $AC$.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and $AC$ for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Maggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)	Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence
MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Harm  1. Me have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations  Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for  APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation  can be summarized as follows: (C)  Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	Washington, D.C. 2	20505
MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Harm  1. Me have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations  Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for  APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation  can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROVAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)		DCI/RM 81-1201
MEMORANDUM FOR:  Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Harm—  1. We have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Maggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROVAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller  OCS 1 0066		6 January 1981	See 18_
Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Harm —  1. We have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Maggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller  OLC  OS 1 0066			X appro I
Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation  SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Harm —  1. We have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Maggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller  OLC  OS 1 0066	NEWS (NEW SOF		. 25 X 1
SUBJECT: FY 1981 Appropriations Conference Action on APEX  Harm—  1. We have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller  OLC  OS 1 0066		OCI for Compartment
1. Me have reviewed the reports of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066
Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reservé for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066
Committees and the Appropriations Conference on the FY 1981 budget item for APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in the IC Staff budget. The situation can be summarized as follows: (C)  - Only $3.0 million may be obligated for the 4C system at this time.  - It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reservé for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	Harry -
- It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  CC: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	Committees and the Appropriations Conference APEX ($5.0 million) which was contained in	e on the FY 1981 b	oudget item for
- It is the interpretation of the HAC Staff that the remainder may be approved for obligation if persuasive justification is presented for the consideration of the HAC and SAC.  - If the additional money is not needed, or approval is not granted by the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  CC: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	<ul> <li>Only $3.0 million may be obligated</li> </ul>	for the 4C system	at this time.
the Committees, then it may be reprogrammed to the CIA Reserve for Contingencies. A separate request for such reprogramming would be required.  2. You should prepare the necessary justification for the full FY 1981 expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	<ul> <li>It is the interpretation of the HA approved for obligation if persuas</li> </ul>	C Staff that the rive justification	remainder may be expenditures needed for the 4C system and for any other APEX-related expenses to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriated to the IC Staff so that we may forward it to the HAC and SAC for approval. (C)  3. In conversation with the HAC Staff (Jim Van Waggenen), it was learned that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	the Committees, then it may be rep Contingencies. A separate request	rogrammed to the C	IA Reserve for that they are not satisfied with the response we have provided on the total cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL compartment. Jim indicated they wish to discuss these matters further in the future. (C)  25X1  cc: CIA Comptroller OLC  OS 1 0066	expenditures needed for the 4C system and f to be paid from the $5.0 million appropriat	or any other APEX- ed to the IC Staff	related expenses
cc: CIA Comptroller OLC OS 1 0066	that they are not satisfied with the respon cost of APEX implementation or on the ROYAL	se we have provide compartment. Jim	d on the total
OLC			25X1
			0S 1 0066
ı			25X1

CONFIDENTIAL